Out of Town Notes.

TULLAHOMA NOTES.

On last Sunday the weather was warm, pleasant and mild, and the church-goers were going all day. Rev. Gurtney, the pastor of the M. E. Church, is preaching some very interesting sermons each service. preparing for his great Titanic rally on next Sunday. He will be assisted by the pastors and members of each church. At 11 o'clock Rev. Wm. Jenkins will preach from Mark 6:47. At 3:30 Rev. J. S. Swift, the great Baptist mogul, who can stand flat-footed and preach as much gospel as any man in the state, will preach. Rev. N. B. Morton will do the singing and conduct the financial part of this great Titanic rally. Everybody is asked to come out and do what they can. Rev. Gurtney is preparing his conventions and conferences. A big picnic will be given on Baptist Hill next Saturday, June 1st, conducted by Revs. N. B. Morton and Wm. Jenkins. Mr. Harvey King and Walter Christian were in Murfreesboro Thursday on business. Mr. Belchey and Mr. Allen, of Nashville, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hunt last Sunday. Mrs. Mollie Tigner is much improved at this writing. Little Miss Janie Mai Jenkins was able to fill her place in church last Sunday. Mrs. J. H. Holman was at church last Sunday. She was accompanied by Alphonso and Allen. Laughing Roly and smiling Mary, what is it—a big girl last Tuesday night, that weighed 6 1-2 pounds, with a great-grand mother. Mother and baby are both happy and daddy is laughing. Miss Emma Clendenen will visit Nashville relatives next week. Miss Clendenen will be en route to Louisville, Ky. Mr. Amos Ryle has accepted a lucrative position with the N. C. and St. L. Railway, and left Sunday night to report for duty. Wm. Jenkins' Ice Cream Pavilion is the place to get your cool drinks every Sunday, the young people's pleasure house. Give him a call. Andrew Simmon, of Decherd, spent last Sunday in our town. Mr. Jerry Scott was in Wartrace last Sunday counting tree leaves. Mrs. Wm. Holoway and Miss Lottie Polk were in Murfreesboro last Thursday. Mr. Chester Winton has returned from Chattanooga, and has accepted a paying position with the Smithwick Bakery Company. The Globe agent will play bustling Bob next week and will call to see you, so pay up and keep reading the Globe—like Johnnie did.

KEELING NOTES.

Miss Lucy Taylor returned home last Thursday from West Point, Miss., where she has been attending school in Mary Holmes Seminary. Rev. O. S. Harwell has opened a grocery and lunch stand in the lower apartment of the Taylor building. We wish for him much success. Sir J. A. Taylor made a flying trip to Memphis last Wednesday. Miss Bessie L. Taylor, formerly of Brownsville, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Taylor. Miss Theresa Maclin returned last week from Arkansas, where she has been teaching school. Miss Sophia McIn is again at home from school from Waldean University, Nashville.

LIVINGSTON NOTES.

Mrs. Sarah Springs died May 21st, leaving a little baby three weeks old, a husband, one daughter, two brothers and one sister to mourn her death. Miss Willie Stewart is the baby's nurse for the present. Mr. Mack Cullon, of Henard, spent the afternoon last Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cullon. Miss Ida Roberts and her brother Barlo, of Monroe, spent Saturday night and Sunday with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ray and family. Miss Jane Simpson is having her house repaired. Our Sunday-school is going on nicely. We have a large number on roll. Every one who attends seems to enjoy the Sunday-school. The quarterly conference of the M. E. Church will be held here the first Saturday and Sunday, hoping for a nice time. Rev. Rucker left last Monday for Murfreesboro on a visit to his family. Miss Ida Roberts and Miss Vera Ray were the guests of Miss Willie Simpson Sunday afternoon. Rev. Williams, of the A. M. E. Church was absent on his preaching day the fourth Sunday. Mrs. Lou Comings, of Chestnut Mound, is still here, being called to attend her sister's funeral. Mr. Logan Cullon, of Cookeville, is spending a few days with his relatives.

ALLEN'S CREEK NOTES.

He left for Clifton, where he will be engaged in a revival for Rev. Cooper. Mr. H. C. Mitchell is getting ready to leave for Indianapolis, Ind., Thursday. Mrs. L. B. Smith has just returned from Dickson, where she has been looking after her property and fruit trees. The Sunday-school is in a splendid condition, adding new scholars every Sunday. Mr. S. Lewis and Mrs. R. L. Linson, Mrs. F. Lee and Mrs. L.

B. Smith spare no pains in making the Sunday-school work a success. Mrs. Borleyjack is in our town. Mr. Jim Beck is on the sick list. Mrs. Amy Childs has been suffering with a very bad rising in the ear, but is better at this writing. Miss Babbie E. Childs and Miss Johnny Childs have just returned from Lyles, where they have been visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Childs.

FRANKLIN NOTES.

Miss Sadie Murdix was hostess of a very enjoyable meeting of the Forget-me-not Art Club Thursday afternoon. The club was called to order by the president, Mrs. Harvey Ewing. Nine members were present, and responded to roll call with quotations. After the transaction of business a social hour was spent in needle work. The ladies are all smiles over the drawn work under the instructor, Miss Mattie Otey, which is progressing rapidly. Several beautiful pieces were shown during the evening. An ice-course was served by the hostess.

MACON NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Tarpley spent a long evening with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Gather, and were highly entertained by them. Mrs. Lucy Tarpley, of Macon, spent a few days with her son, Mr. T. H. Tarpley. Mrs. A. C. McCulley, of Oakland, Tenn., will visit her sister, Mrs. Albert Shaw, of Warren, Tenn., next Wednesday. T. H. Tarpley made some very brief remarks in Sunday-school last Sunday in the interest of the Nashville Globe.

SHELBYVILLE NOTES.

They all report an enjoyable time. Mr. and Mrs. Lon Tucker and children were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Russell Sunday afternoon. Rev. N. Smith returned home Thursday night has been attending the General Conference. He was welcomed by all, and royally entertained by the Stewardesses and brethren. He brought to his people from the great General Conference tidings of great joy. He says the Conference, Bishops and delegation were grand. To our surprise, he brought to many of us souvenirs which were gladly received and highly appreciated. Rev. N. Smith preached at 11 o'clock Sunday. It was a spiritual sermon, and all seemed to enjoy it highly. Sunday night he preached an able sermon, followed by Rev. Flowers.

Mrs. L. C. George came home from Beaver Dam Springs to see her nephew, Mr. Johnnie M. Tucker, Jr., who is not doing so well. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Tucker's infant son is very ill at this writing. Rev. and Mrs. Reece Flowers' little infant is better at this writing.

MURFREESBORO NOTES.

The annual sermon of the Union Order was preached at the First Baptist Church by Rev. Jas. Ridley last Sunday, a large audience being present. Rev. J. M. Massey, one of the oldest ministers of the M. E. Conference, died at his home in the ninth district Saturday. The funeral services were conducted at John's Chapel by Rev. Wesley Lillard. The angel of death called at the home of Mrs. Amanda Cason on Maney's avenue and carried away her little daughter, Fannie. The funeral services were conducted at Key's Chapel last Thursday by the pastor, Rev. D. T. Burch, assisted by Rev. Jas. Ridley and Dr. G. C. Harden. Mrs. Retha Bennett has just returned from Jasper, where she has been visiting relatives and friends. Miss Letitia Springs is home from Morristown, where she has been in school.

DICKSON NOTES.

Sunday was a big rally day at Charlotte. Quite a number of visitors from Promiseland and Dickson were present. At eleven o'clock Rev. J. M. Ewell, the pastor of the A. M. E. Church, preached a soul-stirring sermon from the 22nd chapter of Samuel, taking as his text, "When the waves of his death compassed me, the floods of ungodly men make me afraid." At 3 o'clock Dr. Miles, of Dickson, delivered an address on the "Square Life," in which he sounds the note of warning. Mr. Gus Lanier gave a splendid lecture on "What is Life," after which all marched to the cemetery and held memory service for the dead. The graves of the dead were decorated. Rev. J. M. Ewell deserves much credit in the effort he manifested in the interest of the people of Charlotte. The members of the Bowman Chapel M. E. Church gave a successful entertainment Saturday night. At St. James A. M. E. Church last Friday night there was a mock wedding, in which Hazel Thompson and Van Ramey were united in marriage. It was a swell affair and everybody enjoyed the fun. Mrs. Love Dickson is visiting Mrs. Fannie Childress this week. Mrs. Addie Cunningham is ill. Dr. Miles and Wardell Porter while in Charlotte Sunday were the guests of Mr. D. Colne and his sister, Mrs. Space. Miss Effie Turner and Mr. Doc Hahnab were quietly married last week, and left immediately for Indiana. Mrs. Ida Hill left for Nashville and other points last week. Davis, assistant secretary; Mrs. J. W. Reddick, treasurer; Miss Ethel Merrill, journalist; Miss Mattie Otey was elected instructor, and Miss Sadie Murdix reporter. A short while was spent in needle work, after which the hostess served a two-course menu. Mrs. Eliza Pointer entertained at dinner Sunday, May 5, Mrs. Ed Calhoun, of Talladega, Ala., and Mrs. J. W. Reddick and children. The table was beautifully decorated with a vase of pink carnations, which stood on a beautiful piece of hand embroidery. A five-course menu was served. Mrs. Wm. Halfacre entertained Saturday evening in honor of Miss Jessie Harris, of Columbia, Tenn. Cards were the splendid amusement of the evening. Those who partook of the hospitality of Mrs. Halfacre were as follows: Misses Jessie Harris, Fannie Southall, Sadye, Murdix, Mesdames Myra L. Halfacre and Louise North Hodge. A dainty menu was served. Mr. Willard Dobbins, of Columbia, was guest of Miss Mildred Church Sunday.

UNA NOTES.

Saturday and Sunday, May 25 and 26, were quarterly conference days at Solomon Chapel, with Rev. F. W. Gardener, Presiding Elder; Rev. T. J. Eatherly, pastor. After the routine of business the conference adjourned to meet on Sunday. Promptly at 9:30 a. m. the Sunday-school opened with Superintendent C. H. Simmons conducting the opening. After the review of the lesson the Presiding Elder made some appropriate remarks, as also did the pastor. Promptly at 11:30 a. m. the song and prayer services were conducted by Rev. J. A. Miller. The pastor, Rev. T. J. Eatherly, introduced Presiding Elder Rev. F. W. Gardener, who preached a strong sermon. At night a large crowd assembled to hear Dr. Gardener, who preached another strong sermon. The collection during the Quarter, including class dues, quarterage, auxiliary reports, from Solomon Chapel, seat of conference, $21.92; from Payne Chapel, $16.50; total, $38.42, and thus ended one of
